New Advertisements.

AS my solicitation in October 1765, which was followed by a suspension of the publication of this Gazette for seven months, has been so little regarded, by those to whom it was addressed, that the payments then together with those since made me, have scarce proved sufficient to defray the common expences of a large family, with house-rent and journeymen's wages, much less to answer repeated calls for money where due, and enable me to procure supplies of paper in due time; whereby I am become a very great sufferer: I am compelled to give this notice, to all persons indebted to me, especially those whose accompts are of an old date, that it will not be in my power to give them credit beyond the first of August next, without injuring my credit and family beyond reparation. PETER TIMOTHY.

June 1, 1767.

From the London Gazettes.

GENOA, February 21, 1767.

HE late earthquake has done considerable damage to the houses in this city. It has been succeeded by several other shocks not so violent as the first; and there is a constant tremor in the earth, felt in the city and the extreme.

WESTMINSTER, March 8.

This day his Majesty went to the house of peers, with the usual state, and gave the royal assent to an act for granting an aid to his Majesty by a land tax of Three shillings in the pound, for the service of the present year.—An act for better regulating his Majesty's marine forces when on shore.—An act for giving further time to his Majesty's lieutenants, &c. for carrying into execution certain parts of an act passed in the last session, for the pay and cloathing of the militia, and for indemnifying such lieutenants, &c. who have neglected to carry such parts of the said act into execution.—An act for building a bridge across Stonehouse creek, from Stonehouse to Plymouth dock in the county of Devon.—And to several other public and private bills.

Foreign Affairs.

FLORENCE, February 16.

THE earthquakes which have been felt at intervals at Florence, from the 25th of Jan. to the 5th of the present month, have done considerable damage. The cathedral is much in ruins; part of the church of the Cordeliers has suffered much, and the great hospital, the town-hall, and the salt magazine, are greatly damaged.

Leghorn, Feb. 18. A Letter has been received here from a Corsican at Mezinaggio, of which the following is an extract.

"Our Commander, after having taken all necessary measures during a blow caused to sail from this port, in the night between the 16th and 17th, fourteen vessels, felouques, and armed boats, having [illegible] men, together with ammunition and provisions. Two hours before day people made a successful landing on the Island of Capraja, which is situated over against the coast of Tuscany, and belonging to the Genoese, and about an hour after the sun was up, found themselves masters of almost all the coasts of the island, having met with no resistance from the inhabitants, fifty of whom joined the Corsicans. In the evening of the same day our men obtained possession of the tower of Barbigia, and on the 19th they took that of Genolese, and at length the tower of the port, so that the Genoese have only remained in one messapee, but is provided with [illegible] and has mounted four pieces of cannon. On the other hand, the garrison consists of [illegible] and there is no provision among those and twenty-four effective men, whereas the [illegible] every thing plenty. It is [illegible] supposed we shall soon be masters of the place, especially as the [illegible] managed. We found in the two towers four pieces of brass [illegible] fourteen, a twelve, an eight, and a six pounder."

Berlin, February 21. Letters received here within these few days from Warsaw, inform us, that Prince Repnin, the Russian Minister, and the Ministers of three other powers, who have interested themselves in the affairs of the Dissidents, with a view to re-establish them in their privileges, according to the tenor of the treaty of Oliva, have, in concert with the Senate, entered into a formal negociation for an amicable settlement. If this measure meets with success, and a convention should be agreed on, it will then be necessary to call the Diet together, to ratify it; and this ratification is supposed to be the most difficult part of the business.

Naples, Feb. 24. An earthquake happened here this morning which threw down several houses and damaged some others. It is supposed to have been occasioned by a sudden eruption of mount Vesuvius. The whole city is now almost confederation; the diversions of the Carnival are suspended; and public prayers are offered up to implore the assistance of heaven.

Leghorn, March 6. Upon the 19th of last month, about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, there arrived in this harbour a felucca, having on board Pyrrhus Napolitain, and commanded by the Patron Aristo Manzo d'Ischia, who left Capraja from hence with 200 men for Sardinia. This ship being forced by bad weather to put into the island of Capraja, and having there cast anchor, they were immediately saluted with some volleys of cannon from the fortress, which tore their sails, and even damaged the vessel, so that they were obliged to cut their cables, and put to sea. This is the report he has made here to the government, and to the commission of health, who have received into St. Anthony's hospital two of his mariners mortally wounded. They were ignorant that the Corsicans had lately landed some troops in the island, and had fled to the fortress.

Friday a great Catalonian bark lay at anchor here; and the captain who commanded her reports, that having arrived at Genoa with a cargo of wine, they ordered him forthwith to unload, and by order of the government they sent on board 500 soldiers, as also the necessary provisions, with which he set sail for Capraja; that having arrived at a port of the island, where he was to land his men, he was hindered by a considerable opposition from Corsican troops, and that at last he was obliged to set sail for this road, where he now remains, as also the two armed Genoese felucca.

Genoa, March 7. The Republic having been informed that six hundred of the Corsican malecontents had landed on the island of Capraja, immediately dispatched thither a ship and two large feluccas, with troops and provisions; but these vessels not being able to approach the port, at the entrance of which the malecontents had placed several pieces of ordnance, the government have since sent out, under the command of the Senator Pinelly, three galleys, four pinks, and five feluccas. It is probable that the Corsicans must retire, unless they very soon receive assistance.

Hamburgh, March 13. A rumour prevails here, that a body of 30,000 Prussians are marching from Silesia for Poland, but the report is probably without foundation.

Genoa, March 14. The Republic has received advice, that the convoy which was lately sent to Capraia, under the command of the Sieur Pinelli, arrived the 7th instant before that Island, but could not succeed in throwing succours into the fortress, on account of the precautions which the Corsicans had taken to hinder the Genoese from landing. We have since learnt, that that commandant has been forced by bad weather to return into the gulph of Spezzia, from whence he will sail again for Capraia when the wind serves, both to endeavour to get succours into the fortress, and to intercept those which the Malecontents send from Corsica. Letters from Bonifacio say, that those Islanders are advanced within a mile of the fortress, and by their dispositions it is apprehended, that they intend to block up the place.

Dantzick, March 17. It is generally reported that the Dissidents of this kingdom will assemble at Thorn the 20th instant, in order to enter into a confederacy, and that in all probability General de Goltz will be elected their Marshal. It is likewise said, that the Baron de Schlichting a colonel in the troops of Poland, who took care of the affairs of the Dissidents at the Court of Russia, is arrived in that city. It is also pretended, that the Dissidents established in Lithuania are going to assemble for the same purpose, in the town of Zlucz.

Hamburgh, March 31. The last letters from Thorn, Elbing and other places in Royal Prussia, bring the important news that the Dissidents of that Province, as well as those of Little and Great Poland, had, after several deliberations, agreed to enter into a confederacy at Thorn, and had unanimously elected lieutenant-general de Goltz, their Marshal. In consequence of this Union, the Dissidents all signed a manifesto, which they caused to be printed, setting forth their motives for taking such a step.

The Magistrates of Thorn, Elbing, and Dantzick, have entered into this confederacy.

London Intelligence.

LONDON, March 19.

A letter from Genoa, dated Feb. 7, says, "A report prevails here, that the courts of Versailles and London have signified to the Senate, that it appears to them, that the republic would do well to cede to the malcontents of Corsica, the places which she still possesses there, reserving in exchange an annual tribute to be paid by the islanders, and that they, the said courts, were ready to give their guaranty to this arrangement; but that the Senate has made answer, that they cannot think of embracing such an expedient."

They write from Petersburgh, that the Empress had published an edict, prohibiting the exportation of salt-petre from any part of the Russian dominions.

According to private letters from Madrid, a treaty was on foot with the court of Versailles, for ceding back the island of Hispaniola to his Catholic Majesty, in lieu of which a certain tract of territory on the continent of South-America was to be delivered up to the French.

Expresses have been dispatched this week to the courts of Russia, Sweden, Denmark, and Berlin, said to be on the subject of the Protestant Dissenters in Poland.

There is a great talk that a number of rich merchants, and others, propose to lend eight millions, at three per cent. to have the liberty of trade to the East-Indies, for as much yearly as they pay, which doubtless will be a benefit to the subscribers, but the company of course must lose as much as the free traders get, therefore the directors will propose such a proposal's taking place.

'Tis whispered that the armament which has been for some time getting ready, is much more likely to sail for the neighbourhood of Corsica, than the coast of North-America.

It is reported, that the right hon. the lord Mount Stewart will soon be appointed to a lucrative post under the government.

On Tuesday last 30 transports were taken up by the government, in order, it is said, to carry troops to North-America.

Monday a curious plough, with which one man can plough [illegible], and sow corn, all at once, was deposited for the inspection of the Society of Arts, &c. at their exhibition room in the Strand. We hear it is the invention of a very ingenious clergyman, living at Henley on Thames.

We hear commissions have been this week received to engage several artificers in the gun powder manufactory, to embark for New-York and Philadelphia.

MARCH 20.

Sir Jeffery Amherst, Knight of the Bath, is soon to be married to Miss Cary, daughter of Major General Cary, and niece to Lord Falkland.

The struggle between the Ins and the Outs, continues as violent as ever, but must be finally determined in a few days; both parties having assiduously called in all their forces, in order to decide their dispute.

'Tis now said the Earl of B—— [not the Earl of Bute] is resolved to have no further connections with this administration, and that the Marquis of R—m has given a positive refusal to a recent application for his Lordship to join them on his own terms.

It redounds greatly to the honour of this ministry, that, generally speaking, the persons in the employments of the government, but the workmen in the dock-yards in particular, have been more punctually paid than heretofore.

A wag at the Cocoa Tree said this week, that "Jemmy Twitcher would not be tried this sessions."

The embassy from Russia is, we are informed, intended, not only for the purpose of procuring a hearty concurrence of the guarantees of the treaty of Westphalia, in favour of the Dissidents of Poland, but also designed to renew the ancient harmony which formerly subsisted between this court and that of Petersburgh.

The hon. Mr. Howard, eldest son of Charles Howard, Esq; heir apparent to his grace the Duke of Norfolk, is gone over to Ireland to be married to Miss Coppinger of that kingdom, a young lady of 70,000 l. fortune.

Mr. Foote having obtained the lease of a house in Suffolk-street, has been able to enlarge his design very considerably; and we are informed his theatre will now contain equal value with Drury-lane.

The Tragedy of Dido, which is to be performed for Mr. Holland's benefit, is written by Mr. Reid, who published some years since the Register-Office, a farce.

MARCH 21.

A letter from Paris, dated March 9, says, "They write from Grasse, that on the 9th ult. at a quarter after four in the morning, three successive shocks of the earth were felt at that place. The first lasted but a few seconds, though it wakened several persons in bed, and threw down some tiles and chimnies. During its continuance, a sound was heard like that of a strong gust of wind. The other two shocks were not so sensibly felt. These shocks were considerably more violent in Italy; but diminished in proportion as they were nearer to France. Their force was greatest at Venice; less considerable at Genoa and still less at Nice.

It is said that Sir Edward Hawke, and some more of the lords commissioners of the admiralty, will set out early this summer to make the survey of all the men of war at Portsmouth and Plymouth; together with the marine arsenals and royal dock-yards.

They write from Leghorn, that a violent shock of an earthquake had been felt at the island of Malta, which threw down above seventy houses, and did other considerable damage.

WILLIAM JOHNSON,

Takes this method of informing the PUBLIC,

That he intends to open

A SCHOOL,

At the house the Custom-house was lately kept in, where he proposes to instruct children and youth of both sexes, in READING, WRITING, ARITHMETICK, &c. agreeable to the following plan.

I. IN teaching the children to READ, the strictest regard will be paid to an easy, graceful, yet manly pronunciation of the language; and in order to avoid those vicious habits of reading and pronouncing, which they so frequently acquire under persons not properly qualified for initiating them into the first principles of literature, he proposes to take children from their first setting out.

II. WRITING, he proposes to teach in that simple elegance which is its greatest ornament, avoiding all unnatural flourishing and useless decorations.

III. As soon as they begin to write, he proposes to initiate them into the principles of the English GRAMMAR, in a manner much more easy and familiar than that which is generally practised, and without much interfering with the ordinary business of the school.

It is a common, but too well grounded complaint, that a grammatical study of our own language seldom makes any part of the ordinary method of instructing youth in our English schools. To this neglect may justly be attributed the great incorrectness observable amongst almost all ranks of people in speaking and writing their native language: To remedy which, to teach the children to speak and write with propriety, is the point the propoſer has in view; and experience has assured him that he has no reason to doubt of success.

IV. ARITHMETICK he teaches in all its branches, both vulgar and decimal, together with Merchants Accompts, Trigonometry, and all the PRACTICAL BRANCHES of the MATHEMATICKS, such as Gauging, Surveying and Navigation with the theory and practice of which he is well acquainted.

V. At leisure hours, without much interfering with the business of the school, he proposes to teach the children of both sexes the ELEMENTS of GEOGRAPHY, by tracing out the boundaries, relative situations, latitude and longitude of all the kingdoms and countries of the world; giving, at the same time, a succinct account of their trade, customs and manners: To which will be added, all the principal problems in the USE of the GLOBES.

VI. A course of experiments in MECHANICS will likewise be exhibited, in which will be explained the construction, use and advantage, of the six mechanic powers, viz. the lever, the wheel and axle, (commonly called the axis in peritrochio) the pully, the inclined plane, the wedge, and the screw, with their application to many important purposes in human life.

VII. A course of lectures on select subjects in NATURAL PHILOSOPHY will also be exhibited, at proper seasons of vacation, as well for the instruction of the youth as of persons of riper years; to which his pupils will be admitted as a reward for their diligence and application to their studies, and to encourage them to proceed therein; but principally to cultivate in their tender minds a love of knowledge, and a taste for inquiring into the works of nature.

As the above PLAN of ENGLISH EDUCATION is intended for general utility, the propoſer flatters himself with the hopes of meeting with encouragement, as he assures those parents and guardians who may be pleased to favour him with the care of instructing their children, that nothing shall be wanting on his part, that care and diligence, added to some considerable degree of experience, can supply, in order to bring the children forward in their learning, and to make their studies agreeable to them.

 The SCHOOL will be opened as soon as a sufficient number of children are engaged for, to make it worth his attendance.

MR. TIMOTHY,

AS Pro and Con, by way of Advertiſement, has appeared twice in your paper ſigned J——n L——d, charging J——n Br——d with acting meanly in his poſt of Clerk to the Kings of St. Michael's Church: The ſaid B——nd, takes this method of anſwering his laſt nonſenſical Epiſtle, which was fraught with invectives of a moſt ſcandalous nature; and his Soloquy, or more properly, ſtupid ALLEGORY, contained neither ſenſe, reaſon, or underſtanding, and only ſerved to ſhew the public, that the Author, Mr. Shallow pate, has not had common Work houſe education.—Alas! poor Minim! when pimping is at laſt become your calling!—But Mr. Printer, to be done with this puſillanimous creature, I ſhould be obliged to thoſe of better learning than I am, to be informed what Hudibraſs meant by the following mixture of words, viz. J—ſays he, ſtands for Juggler,—O for Outlaw'd—S—for Scribler, R—for hang'd—U—for U ſtart, A—for Animal.—He likewiſe ſays, that L—ſtands for Liar, O—for Od ous, C—for Coxcomb—K—for Knave, W—for Worſe——O—for Olio, and D—for Dence. This Conundrum, Mr. Printer, I read when a boy, if not in Hudibraſs, in ſome other book; it has often made me laugh, and indeed I did not know for what; but ſurely, the author had his own meaning, and as ſuch, is given to the Public.

RUN away from Mr. Benjamin Stead's plantation, at Cane Acres, about three months ago, a likely muſtee fellow, named Johnny, about five feet eight inches high, well known about Auendaw, where he formerly lived. We are very credibly informed that a very ingenious gentleman, near St. James's, hath lately diſcovered a new method of building houſes, without uſing any kind of timber, either in the roofing, flooring, or any other part of the houſe whatſoever, by building them entirely of ſtone or bricks, with proper cements, notwithſtanding which they ſhall be as elegant as the modern built houſes, and infinitely ſtronger and more durable, without being more expenſive in the building.

By a private letter from Cork, we hear that a lady there having a couple of law ſuits out out for her, employed a certain adept to diſpatch thoſe troubleſome jobs as dextrouſly as he could; having put an end to them, the honeſt conſcientious gentleman brings in his bill, which amounted to no more than 475 l. 10 s. The lady frankly told him ſhe thought it too high, and offered him a 50 l. but not a ſingle penny was to be abated; for, as he told her, it was not a taylor's bill, to be clipped off with the ſhears; and therefore, if ſhe did not pay Mr. Wrangle, he would ſee and pay himſelf. Upon this the lady, being a little whimſical, went to Dublin, ſummoned him before a judge, and, after a fair hearing, the accompt ſhrunk to 67 l. 16 s. 8 d.

CHARLES-TOWN, May 30, 1767.

ON Tueſday the 19th paſt, in the afternoon, ſailed for Great-Britain, his Majeſty's packet-boat Grantham, commanded by Capt. James Bull, immediately after receiving ſome diſpatches from his Excellency the Governor of this province.

Friday the 15th inſtant arrived here, in the ſhip Prince of Wales, Capt. Eggar, from Belfaſt, upwards of 200 paſſengers from the north of Ireland; for the conveying of whom to the Iriſh ſettlement near Long Canes, the hon. commons houſe of aſſembly of this province, laſt Thurſday, voted the ſum of one thouſand pounds currency, and ordered twenty ſhillings ſterling bounty each, to be paid into their own hands.

Monday the 18th inſtant arrived from New Providence, his Majeſty's arm'd ſloop Chaleurs, commanded by Capt. Laughorne; by which we have an account of the death of Mr. Moreſby, ſurgeon of his Majeſty's frigate Eſſex, and that ſaid frigate is preparing to return to Great-Britain.

On Saturday the 23d inſtant his excellency the Governor was pleaſed to give his aſſent to

An Act for eſtabliſhing a pariſh in GRANVILLE county, by the name of ST. LUKE; and alſo for eſtabliſhing a pariſh in CRAVEN county, by the name of ALL-SAINTS; and for erecting a chapel of eaſe in the pariſh of Prince-Frederick."

[By this act the parish of St. Helena is divided, and that part thereof called the Euhaws made into a separate parish; and that of Prince George's, called Waccamaw, made into another: The former is called St. Luke's, and the latter All-Saints. The inhabitants of each of these new parishes, after the diffolution of the present general assembly, are to elect two members to represent them in the next: the rectors are to be elected in the same manner, and to have the like salaries, as the other clergy of this province by law have.]

After which his excellency thought fit to prorogue the general assembly to Monday the 25th.

A Mandamus having been received by his excellency the Governor, for admitting the hon. Daniel Moore, Esq; (collector of the customs for this port) to a seat in Majesty's honourable council of this province, that gentleman was sworn in, and took his seat at that board accordingly, on Wednesday the 27th instant.

The 26th instant died John Mayrant, Esq;

Thursday last (the 28th instant) his excellency the Governor gave his assent to

"An Act for raising and granting to his Majesty, the sum of eighty-five thousand, nine hundred and fifty pounds, two shillings and five pence; and applying the sum of thirteen thousand, five hundred and nineteen pounds, six shillings and six pence, being the balance of several funds in the public treasury, making together the sum of ninety-nine thousand, four hundred and sixty-nine pounds, eight shillings and eleven pence; to defray the charges of this government, from the first day of January to the last day of December 1766, both days inclusive, and for other services therein mentioned."

[By which a tax of 15*s.* per head is laid on all slaves, and free negroes, mustees and mulattoes; 15*s.* per hundred acres on all lands; 30*s.* on every hundred pounds of all monies arising from annuities; 7*s.* 6*d.* per cent. on the value of all town lots, wharves and buildings; the same on every hundred pounds at interest; the same per annum on the value of stock in trade; and the same on the profits of trades, factorage, faculties and professions, the clergy excepted.]

After which His Excellency was pleased to make the following SPEECH, to the Council and Assembly.

Honourable Gentlemen of His Majesty's Council,
Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Commons House of Assembly,

I RETURN you my thanks for your long attendance on business in so warm and inconvenient a season.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Commons House of Assembly,

YOUR ready attention to the applications I have made to you, and the provision you have made for His Majesty's service, claim my acknowledgments: And, tho' it was not consistent with his Majesty's instructions for me to accept of the favour you lately intended me, it has not failed to afford me satisfaction, as it assures me of your regard, and that my endeavours, during my administration, to promote his Majesty's service and the interest of this province, have obtained your approbation.

25*th May*, 1767. C. G. MONTAGU.

And then the General Assembly was adjourned to the 1st Tuesday in November next.

By letters from North-Carolina, we are informed, that his Excellency Governor Tryon, attended by some members of the Council of that province, Col. Waddell, and several other gentlemen, had set out from Wilmington, for the Westward, expecting to meet there the right honourable Lord Charles-Greville Montagu, Governor, with other gentlemen from this province, in order to settle some matters relative to the boundary line between the two Carolinas and the Indians.

Friday the 22d instant put in here, a sloop belonging to Rhode-Island, from a Whaling Voyage in the Southern latitudes, having proved successful about 10 days before. The master informs us, that near 50 New-England vessels have been on the Whale fishery in the same latitudes this season, by way of experiment.

From Georgia, we learn, that on the 12th instant died, of an Apoplectic fit, at Broughton Island in said province, James Theodore Rossel, Esq; a native of Hanover, who had the care of a considerable new settlement there.

Sunday the 24th instant arrived from London, in the ship Planters Adventure, Capt. Lowley, Mr. Andrew Reid, of this town, with several other passengers.

Monday the 25th instant, in the Rose-Island, Capt. Grove, also from London, returned Mr. William Hinchly, and the widow and children of Mr. Henry Kennan, formerly of this province.

The 21st instant embarked for England, in the ship Justina, Captain Lewis, Mr. James Poyas, Capt. Thomas Burkit, Mr. John Lambell, &c.

The 26th instant the Rev. Mr. Sergeant and family, Mr. Lambert Lance, Capt. James Keith, Mrs. Crouch, two children and sister, the widow of Mr. Artemas Elliott, and daughter, Mr. Lopez, and many other passengers, embarked in the sloop Charles Town, Capt. Durfee, for Rhode-Island.

The hon. William Drayton, Esq; who was, by Governor Grant, appointed Chief-Justice of East-Florida, upon the death of the hon. James Moultrie, Esq; and has held, and exercised the duties of, that office ever since, is now appointed thereto by his Majesty, on the death of the hon. William Grover, Esq; deceased, who never arrived to take possession of it after his appointment.

The 29th instant, embarked in the Snow Portland, Capt. Higgins, for London, the Rev. Mr. Hockley, Mrs. Hockley, Mr. John Wodrop, (a celebrated Limner) Mrs. Clitherall, and some other passengers.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of the restoration of King CHARLES II. Capt. Fuser reviewed the Royal Americans under his command at the New Barracks, where they made a fine appearance, and performed their exercises so well, as to do honour to the commander, and give great pleasure to his Excellency the right hon. Lord Charles Greville Montagu (our Governor) his Lady, and a numerous company present.

The same afternoon there was a great fall of Hail in this town, some of the stones not being less than Turkeys eggs; but the wind providentially not being high, no damage was done.

This day [illegible] hon. William Drayton, Esq; Chief Justice of East-Florida, [illegible] the Boston, of his Majesty's 9th regiment, Mr. George with Capt. Major [illegible] Majesty's 9th regiment, Mr. George Laidler, jun. and several other passengers, embarked in the Scooner Mary, Capt. Doran, for St. Augustine.

JUNE 1.

Peter De Lancey, Esq; D. Postmaster General for the Southern district of North-America, returned yesterday from Virginia, having done all that was in his power to do in the present circumstances of the office under his care; so that it now only remains to find a fund to support riders, for continuing the communication by an inland Post between the provinces in both districts.

We are informed, that the importation of Fish, Flour, Beef and Pork, in foreign vessels, is now absolutely prohibited in the French Islands, but every other kind of American produce allowed. And, that the French are putting Martinique and St. Lucia into the best state of defence: but Guadaloupe remains in the state it was restored.

By the last accounts from the Bay of Honduras, all was quiet there three weeks ago, when there were about 50 sail of English vessels in that Bay: But the Spaniards still continued to encourage the desertion of slaves from our Logwood cutters; to which it was expected a stop would be put upon the arrival of a man of war from Jamaica, daily expected, to demand satisfaction for the outrages lately committed.

Chriſtopher Simpſon,

HAVING given all the information he could to thoſe perſons indebted to WILLIAM CARTNER, of Aſhley river, in St. Andrew's pariſh, to ſettle their Accompts with him only, as no other perſon could give a legal diſcharge; he hereby for the laſt time deſires thoſe indebted to the ſaid William Cartner to put it off no longer, otherwiſe he is determined to put ſuch accompts as are not ſettled, either by bond or note, in three weeks after this date, into the hands of a lawyer, to be ſued for without diſtinction.—He deſires his friends who have favoured him with their cuſtom, and whoſe accompts are long due, to ſettle the ſame as ſoon as poſſible.

Charles Town, April 24, 1767.

THE ſubſcriber having left off the dry goods buſineſs, will ſell the remainder of his ſtock at a reaſonable rate; and as there is an abſolute neceſſity of cloſing all his concerns in that way, he hopes all his debtors will be good enough to make immediate payment of their ſeveral debts, and not put him under the diſagreeable neceſſity of uſing harſh means for the recovery of them, eſpecially thoſe of long ſtanding; and as this is the only notice he can poſſibly give them, he hopes that due regard will be paid to the ſame.

George Town. JOSEPH DUBOURDIEU.

JOHN HILL.

A List of Dr. Hill's Medicines sold by Messrs. CARNE & WILSON.

1. PECTORAL BALSAM of HONEY, For colds, coughs, and asthmas. A common cold is often cured, and all the bad consequences prevented that might have followed, by a single dose.—These complaints are so common, that no family should be without the medicine.

2. ESSENCE of WATER-DOCK, For the certain cure of the scurvy, and all breakings out. It never once failed in many thousand instances.

3. TINCTURE of CENTAURY, A stomachic bitter, that gives a healthy appetite and sound digestion. A certain cure for all weaknesses and disorders in the stomach.

4. ELIXIR of BARDANA, For the gout and rheumatism. This restablishes the health after the fits of the gout, shortens such as follow, and eases the pain. For the rheumatism it is a certain cure, and the disease never returns.

5. TINCTURE of SAGE, To lengthen life, and keep off the decays of age; as it embalmes, destroys, and all other the weaknesses of an advanced life.

6. TINCTURE of VALERIAN, For disorders of the nerves, low spirits, faintness, headachs, and all kinds of fits.

 All these are chosen, prepared and directed according to the author, in the course of his study of plants, and for the truth of which he refers to a proper use.

Whoever can claim said horse, may have him on proof of his property, and applying to JOHN HAMILTON, J.P.
